Billings Avenue Sidewalk Project
No decision or plans have been made on what side of Billings to place sidewalk. City hall will hold a meeting regarding the project in November. City will take care of maintenance and snow removal on the Billings Avenue sidewalk if placed on west side. There is no written agreement on the project. If the sidewalk goes on the west side the town of Medford will save money. If goes in on east side the town will take on cost of all ditching and paving. Billings Avenue residents feel the sidewalk should be on the east side. Residents feel the city will annex the property on Billings Avenue.
